MISC. CASE No. III-C 929/54 U/s 23

CGIT 72/55

Sohan Lal Verma—*Applicant.Versus*M/S Hindustan Commercial Bank Ltd., Kanpur.—Opposite Party

Dated 23rd February 1956

DECISION

This is an application under section 23 of the Industrial Disputes (Appellate Tribunal) Act, 1950. The applicant seeks reinstatement with full payment of back wages and other privileges.

The applicant, Sri Sohan Lal Verma, was an employee of the opposite party namely M/S Hindustan Commercial Bank Ltd. He was dismissed. His case is that he was wrongly dismissed and his dismissal was the result of victimization and there was no enquiry whatsoever. On the other hand the case of the opposite party is that his services were rightly terminated.

The applicant was working in Simla and from there he was transferred to Ahmedabad. On 25-6-52 he submitted an application for being transferred from Ahmedabad to some Punjab Branch, vide appendix 'B'. His application was ignored and he was transferred to Bombay on 14.11.52, vide appendix 'D'. He joined at Bombay and worked there for some time. Then he was forced to avail a month's leave, vide Appendix 'E'. On 7.5.53 his services were terminated, vide Appendix 'F'. There upon he proceeded to Amritsar, his home, and from there sent a letter in protest, saying that the act of the opposite party was arbitrary and unjustifiable. He also made a request for reinstatement vide Appendix 'G'. The opposite party reversed its decision and asked the applicant to rejoin and resume his duties at Bombay, vide Appendix 'H'. When the applicant received this intimation he wrote to the opposite party to advance necessary amount against T.A. Bill to enable him to undertake the journey. The opposite party did not accept his request and sent him a letter saying that he was not entitled to T.A. and that if he failed to join his post he will be considered to have voluntarily vacated it vide Annexure 'B'. The applicant sent another letter claiming advance, vide annexure 'G'. After this the opposite party wrote to him on 13.7.53, saying that he had failed to resume his duties at Bombay and so has been considered to have voluntarily vacated his post, vide Appendix 'L'.

Now the question is whether the opposite party was justified in doing what it did. The applicant's services were wrongly terminated and so he left Bombay and went to Amritsar, his home. When the opposite party cancelled its order and asked the applicant to proceed to Bombay to resume his duties, the applicant was perfectly justified in claiming advance against T.A. In order to terminate his services again it was the duty of the opposite party to have made some sort of enquiry. Such an enquiry was indispensable under the law, and this legal proposition indirectly has been accepted as nothing was said against it even by the learned representative of the opposite party. In the absence of such an enquiry it cannot but be said that the applicant's services were properly terminated and so he is entitled to reinstatement.

The result is that this application under section 23 is allowed and the applicant is reinstated as prayed with payment of full wages and other privileges. It is for the opposite party to decide where he is to be reinstated but it would be better to reinstate him in some Punjab Branch. The applicant is to get costs from the opposite party which I assess at Rs. 100/-.
